

Children's Author Frank Cottrell-Boyce Monday 4th March

The children's author Frank Cottrell-Boyce will be visiting Tutshill C of E Primary school on the morning of Monday 4th March to talk about his latest book "The Wonder Brothers" with classes in Key stage 2.

Frank is a highly respected and award winning author of books for children as well as a judge for the 500 Words competition and the BBC's One Show As You Write It competition. Along with Danny Boyle, he devised the Opening Ceremony for the London 2012 Olympics. He has written for the hit TV series Dr Who and was the screenwriter for the hit film Goodbye Christopher Robin.

'A writer of comic genius - he has something of Roald Dahl's magic, but more heart' - Sunday Telegraph

Should you wish to buy a signed and dedicated book for your child then please send in money on the day in an envelope marked with your child's name and the amount inside the envelope. Any cheques should be made out to "Chepstow Books."

The books will be on sale at £7 each (rrp £7.99).

Pupils are under no obligation to buy the book but often are enthused about reading after the visit and wish to read one of the books.
